EXT. CLOUDY, A WHITE ROOM – MORNING BUT NIGHT! !

B: (émoticône smile) I think he's sleeping. But it's no hurry for now. Everybody's sleeping. I'm working a bit, don't want to sound cliché but this show is so inside out that I can't tell what's on display and what's not. No beginning or end. S said in some nice words the other day that it's like everything's that's in is trying to come out and everything outside is trying to get in, facebook ; scattered presence - confusing “I” with “the world” - “melting interior” (duel with fetus / self-as-abuser) meeting “total embrace of exterior”, street posters, YouTube, Ryanair, and it doesn't help both trying to pretend to be the same someone else, Alice in the movie or Soon Boon in the show.! !

N : Ok. (émoticône smile) I think the words of S are probably a good way to describe it, it's in a way, like manipulating so many personals feelings / emotions (of two persons) and like u say, even more twisted since there's Alice and Soon Boon to consider also.! !

(TRAIN SOUND DISSOLVES WITH WARMED UP GAME)! !!
